Two Charleston-area BI-LO Stores to Become Lowes Foods

BI-LO Stores in Columbia and Greenville Markets also Being Converted

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (SEPTEMBER 1, 2020)—Alex Lee, parent company of Lowes Foods, has signed an agreement to purchase two BI-LO grocery stores in the Charleston market and will convert them to Lowes Foods. The stores are located at 3125 Bees Ferry Road and 1000 Tanner Ford Boulevard in Hanahan. Lowes Foods, a Carolinas-based grocer, is well known for offering produce and products from the Carolinas and currently operates two stores in the Charleston area.

The newly purchased stores will continue to operate as BI-LO until Lowes Foods completes the purchase this fall. Lowes Foods will do a complete conversion of the two stores by next summer to introduce the full Lowes Foods shopping experience, including its specialty shopping areas called Lowes Foods Originals.

When the stores initially rebrand this fall, shoppers will begin to see the products from several Lowes Foods Originals including packaged Smokehouse ribs and BBQ, SausageWorks sausages as well as Chicken Kitchen products including fried chicken, rotisserie chicken, chicken wings and in-store made chicken salad and chicken pot pies. The expanded wine department will feature Sunmill Direct, an assortment of wine sourced directly from vineyards around the globe. The bakery areas will also carry Lowes Foods' popular L'Oven fresh cookies.

Lowes Foods will upgrade the store delis to feature Boar's Head meats and cheeses and will update the beef selection to include Certified Angus Beef®. In addition, the stores will have an expanded produce section to include more organic and specialty products and a larger floral department featuring orchids, bouquets, and balloons.

"We're thrilled to have the opportunity to accelerate our Carolinas expansion in the Charleston market with the addition of two new stores," Lowes Foods President Tim Lowe said. "People from Summerville and Mount Pleasant have welcomed Lowes Foods with open arms since we opened our first store in 2017, and we look forward to serving even more Lowes Foods fans with the two new stores this fall."

Lowe said that in addition to the two stores in the Charleston market, two BI-LO stores in the Columbia market and one in Greenville will undergo similar conversions to Lowes Foods in the coming months.
